Informed Consent to Oriental Medical Health Care

I hereby request and consent to the performance of the following on myself (or the patient named below for whom I am legally responsible) by Guanhu Yang Ph.D., L.Ac., who now or in the future treats me: acupuncture and other oriental medical procedures including diagnostic techniques such as questioning, pulse evaluation, palpation on a variety of areas of my body, observation, range of motion, muscle and orthopedic testing; modes of manual therapy such as bodywork, manipulation or joints and/or viscera, heat and/or cold therapy and electrical and/or magnetic stimulation, cupping and/or moxibustion; dietary recommendations; exercise advice and healthy lifestyle counseling.

I understand I have an opportunity to discuss the nature and purpose of acupuncture and oriental medical procedures. Although I am aware that acupuncture and other procedures used in oriental medicine have helped millions of people, I understand that no guarantee of cure or improvement in my condition is given or implied.

I understand and am informed that, as in allopathic medicine in the practice of oriental medicine, there are some risks to treatment. I understand that although these risks are unlikely to occur, they are possible. I understand that these risks include, but are not limited to: slight bleeding, bruising, pain or other strong sensation at the location where a needle is inserted or radiating from that location, nerve pain, minor burns, aggravation or current symptoms, appearance of new symptoms and general aches. Other uncommon but possible risks include pneumothorax (punctured lung), puncture of other organs, sprains, strains, dislocation, fractures, disc injuries and stroke. I do not expect the practitioner to be able to anticipate and explain all risks and complications, and I wish to rely on the practitioner to exercise such judgment, during the course of my treatment, as the practitioner feels at the time, based on the facts then known, to be in my best interest.

I have read, or have had read to me, this informed consent form. I have also had an opportunity to ask questions about its content, and by signing below I agree to the above named procedures. I intend this consent form to cover the entire course of treatment for my present condition and for future condition(s) for which I seek treatment at Acupuncture Wellness Center.
